The Bar That poor, hapless bartender in "The Trouble with Tribbles". (surprise!)

Ship's Would-be Detective Lt. Cmdr Data. Elementary, my dear Trekkites.

Ship's Cat The Tiger from the TOS episode "Shore Leave" (apologies to Data's pet cat Spot).

Ship's Funniest Laughter Lt. Cmdr Data in TNG's "Deja Q"

DISCLAIMER (in voice of F. Murray Abraham) ...

"That was not Data laughing. That was Q laughing at Picard through that hideous, obscene giggle!"

Model Rocket Builder who breathed new life into Hobby and Toy Stores everywhere

Zefram Cochrane, of course!!!

A Certain Character's Quote

One of many things we Trek Fans wish we could know the resolution of.

"Oh God, What I'd Love To Show You" Beverly Crusher to Jean-Luc Picard in TNG Year-1 episode "The Naked Now"

Best and most important episode

"Yesterday's Enterprise", which created several never really seized upon possibilities.

Best recurring good person

Gene Roddenberry, the Heart and Soul.

Worst recurring bad persons

Entities who did not realize certain paths and directions that Trek (especially TNG) could venture off to!

Thanx-A-Lot, Enjoy and God Bless Vespucci-Land, Frank-0-Sport

Ship: Enterprise NCC-1701-D

Captain: my first choice will be Picard but I'd love to see Data in the captain's chair

1st Officer: Geordi will be good but also Jadzia Dax

Engineer: Belana Torres will be my choice she loves her job

Chief of Security: my first choice will be Odo after him Tasha Yar and Worf

Doctor: Crusher was so maternal I think that's the way a doctor should be; she also always was willing to help.

Recurring good character(s) (guy/gal) guy will have to be Q and gal will be Guinan

Recurring bad character(s) (guy/gal) guy Gul Dukat and girl will be Seska

Excellent choices Grason. Ed Jelico was brilliant, if a bit of a bastard.

Ship USS Prometheus          Captain: Picard, can't change him as I think he's great.

1st Officer: Chakotay, again thought he was great.
Science Officer: Data, you know it makes sense.
Engineer: Chief O'brien, to be sure, he's a grand ol' Irish fella.

Helmsman: Tom Paris, he can fly, no doubt about that.
Doctor: McCoy, no one else comes close, though I would like the EMH to come in now and then.
Chief of Security: Worf, Hard as nails.

Additional characters ....

Good old Ensign Yates would make a comeback and I'd have Harry Kim somewhere as well.

Recurring good guy: Q, as I don't think he's a bad guy anymore.
Recurring good gal: 7 of 9, she looks to damn good to leave out.

Recurring bad guy: Weyoun, I know the Domian war is over, he's just such a cool bad ass.
Recurring bad gal: Evil Romulan Yar.

Captain: Hmm...this is a hard one. I am going to have to go with Benjamin Sisko.
He was straight up and in your face. I liked that.

First Officer: Chakotay. He would balance Sisko's volatile nature with his own calm temperament
Engineer: Geordi La Forge.
Doctor: The Holographic Doctor. Leonard McCoy is a close second.
Helmsman: Data, easily.

Communications Officer .....

I don't know if it's her first or last name, but Hoshi from Enterprise.
I have a thing for Asians.

Chief of Security: Pavel Chekov.
If I am not mistaken, his character was a Security Chief for a while in the movies.
I do not care for Worf and Tuvok is just a bland character to me.

Additional regular character(s): Jadzia Dax. Make her the head of sciences or something.

Recurring bad character(s) (guy/gal) The Romulans.
The best Star Trek alien race, hands down. The Q would be a nice addition as well.

Hrrmmm ... this was a tough one .....

Ship

On pure looks- the Gorn vessel. Anyone ever see that thing? I first saw a pic of it in an ol' Star Trek board game. It looked mean as Hell.

If we're going for the total package, then the Prometheus. That thing has the capability to be some kind of Dreadnought Like crossing the Bismark and the Yamato. Pure Hellfire. That's what I'd call it -- USS Hellfire.

Honorable mention to the Gunship with Guts: the Defiant.

Captain

Picard. I mean... the man did more than Kirk ever dreamed of. The Borg, Q, Cardassian torture, Romulan half-breeds from an alternate universe, has his own damn Maneuver ... He is the perfect Starship Captain.

First Officer

If you've got Picard, ya gotta have Riker. but only -AFTER- he grew his beard. He was such a -DINK- before that. Happened with Sisko, too. Anyway... Riker is the perfect Number One, but only with Picard. They're a double act. It's a switcheroo of the first Captain/#1, with the gung ho charisma taking a side seat to the cooler intellect.

Engineer

I like O'Brien alot. He's smart, quick thinking, and I think he'd be fun to drink with. But c'mon... who's better than Scotty. That man IS the miracle worker. And ya know what? Probably just as fun to drink with. "Well it's uh... it's green."

Helmsman

Data. Honorable mention to Paris and all, but I'd rather have Data on my ship anyway.

Doctor

Tough call. OK, so Julian Bashere is engineered to be brilliant. But I gotta go with Beverly Crusher. The fact that she's a hot red head doesn't hurt, either. Honorable mention to The Doctor of Voyager. Their scene together in "First Contact" kicked ass... had me rollin.'

Science Officer

Spock... who else? Also, I'd LOVE to sit in on a Riker, Spock, Scotty, Data poker match. Oh, the possibilities!

Security Chief

The double act of Worf and Odo. Worked on DS9, it'd work on a ship.

Communications

I'm with Aesiron on this ... Hoshi all the way. I can't imagine how many IQ points it takes to do her job. Plus she's hot... what can I say?

Bartender

Quark. He was funny, and 9 times out of 10, a pretty stand up guy. Takes guts to fight a Klingon when you're only 5'4" or so, no matter what kind of help you're gettin. Plus it's always good to have a good hook up around, nudge-nudge, wink-wink, ya know-ya know?

Reoccurring Bad Guys

Again, a shout to the Gorn. What happened with them? They got that one episode and poof! they're gone? What's up with that? Are they the Kesier Sosez of races or something? WTF?

Reoccurring Good Guys

Guinan, since I didn't have her at the Bar. I'd love to see Guinan walking into a bar run by Quark ... oh man! Are you listening, Screenwriters?

For what it's worth.....

Chief Engineer .. Miles O'Brien      Science Officer .. Seven of Nine

Navigator .. Wesley Crusher (grown-up!)      Helmsman .. Tom Paris

Tactical .. Tuvok      Doctor .. Julian Bashir      Chief of Security .. Worf

Regularly Recurring Characters ... Guinan in a Ten-Forward type bar, Kes in sick bay.

Occasional characters ... Spock, Q, Sisko-Wormhole Alien-Whatever, Admiral Janeway, Capt. Picard, any romulans

Ship ... the Enterprise NCC-1701-D.

Beautifully designed by Andrew Probert and Rick Sternbach, the bridge was the best ever.

Captain ... Riker, I'm promoting him because he is my favorite Trek character.

1st officer ... Commander Shelby (Best of Both Worlds)

Engineer ... Geordi (with his visor), I love Levar Burton's acting.

Helmsman ... Wesley Crusher, this kid could get himself out of anything.

Doctor ... McCoy, he always put Kirk in his place and brought a real human perspective to things.

Chief of Security ... Worf, He and Commander Riker were much better friends than they let on.

Operations Officer ... Data, this guy is amazing, and you can't have Geordi without Data.

Recurring Good Character (guy) ... Admiral Picard

Recurring Good Character (gal): Deanna Troi, as Riker's Wife

Recurring Bad Character (guy) ... The Romulan Tomeluk

Ship ... USS Enterprise NCC-1701-A

Captain ... Admiral Nechayev (I'm a sucka for tough bitches and this chick's got balls)

1st Officer ... Kira Nerys (as I said, tough bitches rock)

Science Officer ... Spock (cool and logical, a perfect counterpoint to Nechayev and Kira)

Engineer ... Montgomery 'Scotty' Scott (the greatest starship engineer ever)

Helmsman ... Ro Laren (a female helmsman, and she'd be a perfect counterpoint to Kira)

Doctor ... Leonard 'Bones' McCoy
(where would this ship be without the McCoy/Spock sniping matches?)

Chief of Security ... Worf (shoot first and ask questions later)

Counselor ... Ezri Dax (for sheer cuteness, and she didn't need to use telepathy to do her job properly)

Miscellaneous crew members ...

Lieutenant Barclay, Ensign Taitt, Ensign Salazar, Lieutenant Barnaby,
Ensign Helen Blake and Ensign Tess Allenby

Additional recurring characters ....

- Good guy .. Hugh of Borg (can we say sweepstakes ?)
- Good gal .. Ambassador Cretak (Romulan diplomat assigned to DS9, played by Adrienne Barbeau)
- Bad gal 1 .. Mirror Kira (we luv a spunky bitch with lesbian tendencies in spandex)
- Bad gal 2 .. The Borg Queen (Alice Krige. We've got Hugh, so we must have the Borg Queen)
- Bad guy 1 .. Lore (for coolness)
- Bad guy 2 .. Shinzon (for sheer coolness and as a counterpoint to Cretak)

Miscellaneous others ...

- Senator Tal'Aura, Commander Donatra, Chancellor Martok, Colonel Kurn,
- the President of the Federation

Well, here would be my choices for an all-star dream crew....

SHIP ....

Romulan Empire's SCIMITAR Class, newest and most powerful super battleship designed by the Remans, I'd name it after my ship in the Starfleet Command 3 PC game- The FALCHION.

CAPTAIN ....

No doubt about it, James Tiberius Kirk. The Captain to end all Captains. Mr. Star Trek himself! Extensive combat and diplomatic experience and a hit with the chicks!

FIRST OFFICER ....

THE Gary Mitchell character in WNMHGB episode- this was a tough choice between Spock and Mitchell but I ultimately chose Mitchell because he is better tactically than Spock, Spock would be my choice as head science officer but he would be senior to Mitchell in rank and therefore cannot be ordered around by him. (If Mitchell didn't die of course, but my alternate choice would be Riker for the same reasons as above).

**note** There was a reorganization of Starfleet since the time of TOS and TNG, helmsmen and navigators were hereby referred to as bridge command specialists; the consoles were designed so that either person at the front could function in case the other was unavailable. Communications and tactical were now handled by security specialists that sat behind the Captain (in a galaxy class starship). Away team members would normally not include the Captain as that would jeopardize the ship's command integrity.

Now, on to the rest of my list .....

HELM OFFICER-1 ....

Sulu - though he was ultimately promoted to Captain of the Excelsior, he's still the best helmsman of the bunch.

HELM OFFICER-2 ....

Data - As long as he sits there, drives the ship and shut up like any good android will do, he is my choice for backup to Sulu.

SCIENCE OFFICER ....

Spock - The master of analysis would be a great complement and he would be permanently stationed on the bridge.

TACTICAL / COMM ....

Chekhov - Oh yeah, he is quite good and funny when it comes to dealing death with weapons and he is definitely my choice for that.

ENGINEER ....

Scotty - The best! no one comes even close to him!

DOCTOR ....

McCoy with the holographic Doctor on Voyager as an assistant. Now that would make one hell of a comedy team!

BARTENDER ....

Harry Mudd - The quintessential con-man! You have to bring him back! Trek is no fun without him!

RECURRING GOOD PERSON ....

Garak - The best character of the TNG timeline and master spy too! Call him the Tailor of Panama!

RECURRING BAD PERSON ....

Khan Noonian Singh - Quite simply the most complex and best villain Trek has to offer! He learns from his mistakes and would be stronger each time the crew faces him!

CHIEF OF SECURITY ....

This position would be for intruders on the ship as well as part of the away team will be filled by Odo. He can change shape and he is quite deadly.

	AWAY TEAM ....  Although Kirk would kill to be leading this team I would keep him at the bridge! No excuses. Spock, Data, Odo, Holographic Doctor [This message has been edited by TrekSucksHard (edited January 08, 2003).
